

Think the "basket of deplorables" gaffe was bad? Hillary called her own voter base a BUCKET OF LOSERS while speaking at a Goldman Sachs convention!

No wonder why they released their best ammunition against Trump at this time! HA HA HA, she's TOAST!

Complete contempt for Americans - Hillary called her own voters a "bucket of losers"

H. Clinton

THANK YOU Lloyd (0.5) Friends↓, distinguished members of Goldman Sachs, it is a great pleasure to address you here today. (0.5) As you know we are in preparation for the 2016 presidential campaign and I am here both to ask for your support and to apprise you of what we see on the horizon.

Gentlemen, ladies, I'm also going to be blunt and >to the point<: Our time is valuable. Historically the Republican party has been the party most aligned with Wall Street and the Financial Services industry. Today, however, that is no longer the case.

Our analysis indicates that the Republican establishment firewall barely held in 2012 and this cycle you will be immensely lucky to see a candidate like Mitt Romney. Because of the collapse of the control systems that gave us the 2012 field, derisively called the 'clown car,' we think that 2016 will be far, far worse.

You are more likely to see a nominee who is a general-election non-starter. You will be lucky to get a Herman Cain. You might well see Scott Walker as the GOP nominee. Gentlemen, Scott Walker?

THIS!>>>

What we see on the left is in its way more disconcerting. The early data suggests that while the minority base is probably still dominated by the Democratic messaging, a coalition of sub altern interests is forming that could, with an extremely weak Republican nominee, create an aperture for either a 3rd Party Victory or, in essence, an election inflection point where an insurgent candidate could actually co-opt (.) Take over (.) a major party.

THIS! >>>

This coalition, a collection of generally under-represented, low social capital individuals has become increasingly networked and increasingly motivated. This group that our analysts are calling the ((Makes air quotes)) bucket of losers could not only be a significant force in the next election but (.) could, on an outside percentile, even win.

(Chaos)

DEAR BLACK LIVES MATTER: YOU MAY HATE TRUMP, BUT HILLARY IS ALSO WHITE, AND SAYS YOU ARE A BUCKET OF LOSERS!

DEAR BLACK LIVES MATTER: TRUMP MAY NOT BE YOUR FAV, BUT HILLARY IS ALSO WHITE, AND CALLED YOU AND THE LATINO COMMUNITY A BUCKET OF LOSERS!

So you now know what a Hillary presidency will think of you! You will not get favored status, or a path upward from this gal!

CLINTONS NUKED.

Ok, this is big. It is a story with several facets.

1. The U.S. government issued an accusation against Russia (with no proof whatsoever) that Russia did the latest hacks, which netted over a million documents that prove massive corruption within the democrat party.
2. This was done after the democrats said the documents were not real. PROBLEM: IF THEY WERE NOT REAL, THEN THE HACK WOULD NOT BE REAL, AND RUSSIA WOULD NOT BE THE SOURCE, AUTOMATICALLY. Problem. BIG problem. The U.S. government, from the highest levels, just told the entire American public that these documents now being released ARE REAL by accusing Russia of releasing them.
3. The documents are more than spicy. Already one of them proves that Bill Clinton, as President, accepted a million dollar bribe for approving the Keystone pipeline. That's huge. And there is lots more.
4. So what did the Clinton team do? It released a recording of Donald Trump "talking lewd" about women. In the recording, trump said "I just start kissing them..Just kiss. I don't even wait," "Grab them by the pussy" "And when you're a star they let you do it." So Trump fired back with some of the things Bill has said on the golf course. One that stands out is "Hillary has eaten more pussy than I have". Ouch. That stings. I'd like confirmation on that, but apparently Bill really did say that.

So this is backfiring badly on Hillary, and she's having her troll team - "Correct the Record" - go online with a blaze of comments saying the Republican party is going to cancel Trump's nomination, that Trump is dropping out, and that this is all so horrible, all the while Hillary and Bill are guilty of so much worse it's laughable.

5. All of this is happening against the awful back drop of what is going on in Syria, and Hillary's desperate need to start a huge war with Russia. They were hoping that releasing this against Trump would destroy him. It backfired. And when war is the only other option, that's spooky. -so-

Keep your ear to the rail, something huge might be coming soon.
